Passage

Power and possession have been the central pursuits of modern civilization for a long time they blocked out or distorted other features of the western renaissance(revival) which promised so much for humanity. What people have been and are still being taught to prize are money, success, control over the lives of other, acquisition of more and more objects. modern social, political and economic system, whether capitalist, fascist or communist, reject in their working the basic principal that the free and creative unfoldment of every man, woman and child is the true measure of the worth of any society. Such unfoldment requires understating and imagination, integrity and compassion, cooperation among people and harmony between the human species and the rest of the nature. Acquisitiveness and the pursuit of power have made the modern man an aggressor against everything that is non-human, an exploiter and oppressor of those who are poor, meek and unorganized a pathological type which hates and distrusts the world and suffer from both acute loneliness and false pride.

The need for a new renaissance is deeply felt by those sensitive and conscientious men and women who not only perceive the dimension of the crisis of our age but who also realize that only through conscious and cooperative human effort may this crisis be met and probably even overcome.
